Summary

Details from Boxworth PC noted below

Boxworth is a small parish with a population less than 200. The only open space available is the village green which is in fact little used. The population changes constantly with time and at present there are a number of growing young children who may well require a playground in the near future. This is under consideration at present and if the demand is there a playground will be progressed. The obvious site would be the village green.
