Summary

The tennis, cricket and football clubs are well developed and improvements such as drainage have been made to the grounds and ancillary facilities over the years.

In 2010 the play area was enhanced with funding from the play builder lottery project.

The parish council have identified that allotment provision will be required within the next few years.

The Varrier Jones Foundation owns much of the open space within the village the Parish Council is unable to buy and develop more open space.

The parish council would also like to develop another MUGA
